The IRE Principles

Investigative Reporters & Editors is committed to providing a friendly, safe and welcoming environment for all, regardless of gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, physical ability, age, appearance or religion.

IRE supports vigorous debate and welcomes disagreement, while maintaining a civil and respectful community.

IRE may take any action it deems appropriate to deal with those who violate our principles, including exclusion from our events, forums, listservs and the organization itself.

Anyone who feels threatened or in immediate jeopardy during an IRE event should call building security in Chicago (312-245-4761) or local police by dialing 911.

Additional concerns can be brought to the attention of IRE staff or board members in person. Contact information for both staff and board members can also be found on IRE's website.

Receptions, awards and outside meetups

Join us Thursday night for a welcome reception beginning at 6 p.m. in Grand Ballroom III. Each attendee will receive one drink ticket for beer, wine, soda or bottled water.

The 2017 Philip Meyer Journalism Awards will be presented Friday night. The awards recognize the best uses of social research methods in journalism and are named in honor of Philip Meyer, author of Precision Journalism and retired Knight Chair in Journalism and UNC School of Journalism and Mass Communications.

Following the awards presentation, a reception will be held to celebrate the winners in Grand Ballroom III, with light hors d'oeuvres and a cash bar beginning at 6:15 p.m.

You can also find a list of social events and outside meetups during the conference at this link: tinyurl.com/nicar18-meetups
